The following is an example of a situation that does not require decompilation to achieve operability Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the following is a non-exhaustive list of examples of situations that do not require decompilation to achieve operability of the Font Software with another software program: (a) Licensee fails to purchase the font format to meet its needs (e.g. PostScript flavored OpenType font will not work in CAD/CAM); (b) the Font Software does not work in an isolated application but works in all standard operating systems (current MAC OS or Microsoft OS for desktop computers) and/or software application programs (current Adobe InDesign, Illustrator and similar Creative Suite Applications, etc.).

If Licensee fails to fully comply with a written request from Berthold within thirty (30) days of receipt, Licensee agrees that Berthold may perform a font audit at a time and in a manner that is reasonably calculated to cause the least disruption to Licensee's business. Berthold may provide Licensee notice of termination but is under no obligation to provide notice.

Upon termination, the Licensee must destroy all copies of the Font Software. The balance of the Agreement shall survive any such termination of license rights. 12. Limited Warranty. For a period of ninety (90) days after delivery (“Warranty Period”), Berthold warrants to Licensee that the Font Software will substantially perform as outlined in the user documentation in effect at the time of the commencement of this license. Berthold will make all reasonable efforts to correct substantial malfunctions occurring during this Warranty Period provided that such malfunctions are reproducible, the Font Software is properly registered, and the Licensee gives notice within the Warranty Period and sufficient detail of such malfunctions to Berthold. Such corrections generally will be incorporated into new revisions of the Font Software, or until the release of such new revisions into temporary versions, at Berthold’s discretion. The correction may also be achieved by delivery of new versions of the Font Software in which case the warranty does not cover such additional functionality and performance. Berthold will have no responsibility in the event the Licensee fails to provide proof that it licensed the Font Software from an authorized Berthold source. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the following is a non-exhaustive list of examples of situations that do not constitute malfunctions or defects in the Font Software: (a) Licensee fails to purchase the font format to meet its needs (e.g. PostScript flavored OpenType font will not work in CAD/CAM); (b) the Font Software does not work in an isolated application but works in all standard operating systems (current MAC OS or Microsoft OS for desktop computers) and/or software application programs (current Adobe InDesign, Illustrator and similar Creative Suite Applications; etc.

LICENSEE'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY SHALL BE REPAIR OF THE FONT SOFTWARE OR REFUND OF THE LICENSE FEE (defined below). TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, LICENSEE AGREES TO LIMIT BERTHOLD'S LIABILITY FOR ANY LOSS OR DAMAGE TO THE LICENSE FEE PAID UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. THE LIMITATIONS IN THIS SECTION SHALL APPLY REGARDLESS OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION OR LEGAL THEORY PLED OR ASSERTED. The foregoing limitations will apply even if the above-stated remedy fails of its essential purpose.

15. Governing Law. The Agreement is governed by the laws of Illinois, U.S.A., without regard for its conflict of laws considerations and excluding the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. This Agreement shall be deemed to have been entered into in Illinois. Licensee may change its "notice" address by giving notice to Berthold under this provision. Berthold may change its "notice" address by updating its mailing address on its website. In the event the intended recipient refuses to accept delivery of notice, notice shall be deemed given on the date recipient refuses acceptance of notice.

17. Entire Agreement. The Agreement, including the Order Confirmation, represents the entire agreement between Licensee and Berthold in connection with its subject matter. The Agreement supersedes any other "Agreement" previously displayed on this web site, and/or any prior agreements between Licensee and Berthold in connection with its subject matter. The Agreement may only be modified by Berthold and in a writing that expressly states that such writing is intended to modify the Agreement. If any provision of the Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall be given full force and effect.

18. Authority. Licensee represents that Licensee has the full power and authority to enter into and perform the Agreement, and the person accepting this Agreement on Licensee's behalf has been duly authorized and empowered to enter into the Agreement.
