1.236 SPHINX OF BLACK
QUARTZ, JUDGE MY VOW. Thief, give back my prized wax jonquils. *The quick brown fox jumps
over the lazy dog.*

THIN + ITALICS

¶ Sphinx of black quartz, judge my vow. Thief, give back my prized wax jonquils. The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog. Sixty zippers were quickly picked from the woven jute bag. Jaded zombies acted quaintly but kept driving their oxen forward. ¶ In a formula deus, qualem paulus creavit, dei negatio. Such a religion as christia-nity, which does not touch reality at a single point and which goes to pieces the moment reality asserts its rights at any point must be inevitably the deadly enemy.

MEDIUM + ULTRALIGHT + ITALICS

¶ Sphinx of black quartz, judge my vow. Thief, give back my prized wax jonquils. The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog. Sixty zippers were quickly picked from the woven jute bag. Jaded zombies acted quaintly but kept driving their oxen forward. ¶ In a formula deus, qualem paulus creavit, dei negatio. Such a religion as christianity, which does not touch reality at a single point and which goes to pieces the moment reality asserts its rights at any point must be inevitably the deadly enemy of the wisdom of this world which is to say of science and it will give the name of good to whatever means serve to poison, calumniate and cry down all intellectual discipline. ¶ Paul well knew that lying that faith was necessary. Later on the church borrowed the fact from Paul. The god that Paul invented for himself, a god who reduced to absurdity the wisdom of this world especially the two great enemies of superstition, philology and medicine, is in truth only an indication of Paul resolute determination to accomplish that very thing himself to give one own will the name of god, thora that is essentially Jewish. Paul wants to dispose of the wisdom of this world his enemies are the good philologians and physicians of the Alexandrine school on them he makes his war.
